

Andreas Holzinger

LV 706.046 3SE AK Mensch-Maschine Kommunikation
Usability Engineering for Software Developers
Applying User Centered Design

Welcome

Schönen Nachmittag!

*"The old computing is about what computers can do;
The new computing is about what people can do"*
Shneiderman (2002)

■ How to get a (positive) grading

Part 1+2 (70 %): Project Presentation + Paper

- Select a project idea (DONE ✓)
- Work on the project together (Today, 23.,30.5)
- Write a paper together (max. 3 authors)
- Submit to Committee Chair (Deadline: 1.6.)
(will be extended)
 - via e-mail: andreas.holzinger@meduni-graz.at
- Peer review due to 12.6.2005
- Written Final exam (30 %) 13.6.
- Presenting the paper in plenum 20.6.

■ How to get a (positive) grading Part 3 (30%): Written Examination

■ Answering questions of UCD Theory

- Dichotomy YES/NO Decisions
- Multiple Choice
- Open Ended Questions

Relevant Literature: Holzinger (2005), Holzinger (2004)

- Medicine/health: Gig, Thomas, Daniel, Conny, Bernd, Toni, Sabine,
- Public: Markus, Verena, Christian,
- Communications: Thomas
- Civil Engineering: Martin1
- Media: Gernot, Martin2, Toni, Hans-Peter, Martin3, Peter2, Sabine, Peter, Chrissi,

Already are designers ...	High	0	4	5
	Medium	0	4	5
	Low	0	0	0
		Low	Medium	High

Adept at prioritizing user issues...

Los gents!